Recently, the Alpha Pi Lambda brotherhood has grown with the addition of 13 new members from the Fall 2009 pledge class. The initiation was held on Saturday February 13th as families and alumni flooded the Alpha Pi Lambda house to see these men become brothers. These new members hope to keep the tradition of the Pi going as well as improve the fraternity over the course of the next five years. The new class includes pledge President Kenny Hamson, Alex Miller, Andy Jones, Anthony D'Ambrosio, Bob Sorgi, Greg Herman, Jeff Wang, John Stanley, Kevin Sawicki, Matt Miller, Matt Remner, Phil Williams, and Tyler Aaron. Congrats to the new class!
